P. P. MAUA & Co.,
Dec. 1, 1864. WILLIAM LESLIE.

MAUA BANK,

CALLE CANGALLO, Nos 101—103

The Offices of this Bank having been removed to the above spacious building, in order to suit the increasing flow of business, the public is informed that the following transactions are carried on in currency and specie in this Bank:—

First—Bills and obligations with good signatures are discounted on conventional terms.

Second—Money is advanced on mercantile and other securities approved of by the Manager.

Third—Accounts current are opened with Merchants or other parties who may prefer depositing endorsed and transferable securities, against which they may draw up to an amount previously convened under conditions established for such class of operations.

Fourth—Money is received in account current, bearing interest from day of deposit, which is accumulated in favor of the parties every three months, the depositors being allowed to retire at any time, by means of cheques, part or the full amount at their wish, save when the quantity exceeds three hundred doubloons or one hundred thousand dollars currency, in which case forty-eight hours' previous notice is required to be given at the Treasury of the Bank.

Fifth—Bills or letters of credit are drawn and taken on Montevideo, Rosario, Sta. Fé, Salto Oriental, Paysandu, Rio Janeiro, and other places in the Brazils, England and France, as also on other places of which notice will be given hereafter

Finally, the Bank undertakes and executes all legitimate transactions within the orbit of banking operations.

The establishment is always open from 9 a m till 4 p.m.

P. P. MAUA & Co.,
WILLIAM LESLIE.

Royal Insurance Company.

FIRE AND LIFE.

CAPITAL TWO MILLIONS STERLING.

This important company, in many respects the greatest of its kind in the present age, has appointed an agency in this city. The head-offices are in London and Liverpool with branches in Dublin, Edinburgh, Glasgow, Manchester, Bristol, Birmingham, Sheffield, Leeds, Newcastle, Southampton, Montreal, Toronto and other cities.

The ROYAL is remarkable; for the promptitude and liberality of its settlements: for the largest life bonuses (£2 per cent per annum) ever continuously declared during 15 years by any Co.; for the enormous extent of its transactions, shewing £100 000 in new life assurances for 1862, and a Fire revenue of £300,000 per annum; for its security, which has given rise to the proverb "as safe as the Royal;" for the accumulated funds in hand, over one million sterling; for its annual income, over half-a-million sterling; and for the correct calculation of its mortality tables. Hence the English press of all countries, including over 90 leading papers, speaks in the highest terms of this company.

The report for 1864 shews that all the property of the Co. amounting to £816,070 is real and substantial property: the amount now exceeds one million sterling. The increase, during 14 years, of Fire business was 900 per cent, and on Life 1350 per cent.

MESSRS. H. A. GREEN AND Co. are authorised to issue policies for Fire and Life to a very large amount, at moderate premiums, the Co. being anxious to extend its foreign business, which already shews an annual revenue of £300,000. Life claims can be settled without reference to England. For further particulars please apply to TENNENT'S ALE.

In consequence of the indisputable superiority of the ale marked "Tennent," numerous forgeries and imitations have appeared, forcing on the public an unwholesome beverage; and in consequence of the daring falsifications of the signatures, &c., we are obliged to call attention to the following precautionary measures which the manufacturers have been obliged to adopt, to put a stop to the frauds perpetrated on them and the public at large.

1st. Henceforth all importations will have a metallic capsule on the bottle, which will bear the stamp of the manufacturer.

2nd. The corks also will have the following brand, J. and R. 'Tennent.'

3rd. The barrels will be marked by the manufacturer in a manner difficult to imitate.

Furthermore, we feel bound to notify those parties who so openly falsify the marks and brands, that being duly authorised by the manufacturers, we are determined to cite them before the tribunals of the country, and demand the utmost rigor of the law.

Rams—Rams—Rams.

The undersigned, in calling attention to his large and superior stock of Rams and Breeding Sheep, begs to inform his Friends in the Camp that he has on hands a splendid collection of animals, from Three Hundred to Five Thousand Dollars, mpc., and is confident that each in its class will compete with anything in the province.

In the "Rambouillet type" will be found some fine specimens of the pure blood, besides crossings from the "Merino," possessing the size, shape, and length of staple for which this class is so much admired.

In the "Negrettee" he has also some beautiful animals of pure blood, as likewise the "Negrette" drawn from the "fine Merino," a "Cria" remarkable for compact shape and close heavy wool.

In addition to the above he wishes to draw especial attention to his celebrated Argentine breed, between the "Rambouillet" and "Negrette Ewe," and which, after seven years' experience, he can fully recommend as combining size and shape with length and weight of wool—qualities so anxiously looked for by all experienced sheep-farmers, and which have given so much satisfaction to those who have already purchased of this class. In buying the above in half three-quarter, and pure blood, already acclimatised, there is an immense advantage, as Rams reared in this country are not so delicate and withstand the winter better than imported animals, besides being sold much cheaper, and only requiring ordinary care.

He can likewise supply the above classes in Ewes, either picked or by the hundred, and wishes to remark that all have been in prime condition throughout the past summer.

AGITATION IN PERU.

THE BOLIVIAN REVOLUTION.

The 'Mercurio' and 'Ferro-Carril' of Chile bring dates to March 7th. The steamer from Callao arrived on the 1st with news that the revolution at Lima had been suppressed. General Bustamante, Dr. Casos, Col. Cotera and other ringleaders were arrested: on the person of the first-named was discovered a paper with full details of the plot, which mentions taat the gas was to be extinguished all through the city, and after a mutiny in the barracks the palace itself would be attacked by storm. Great agitation prevailed, but some of those arrested were set at liberty. The Spanish officers landed at Callao and were not molested. It was believed that Vice-Admiral Valle-Riestra would proceed to Spain as Peruvian Plenipotentiary, and Dr. Barrenechea as Secretary of Legation: the latter left by the last mail and Sr. Riestra was to follow by that of the 28th February. General Rivas has taken possession of the prefecture at Callao. The American Congress held some sessions about postage and telegraphs establishing the central station at Panamá.

As several attempts were made to murder the Spanish officers who visited Lima, and being unable to reach the coast by train, they had to take refuge in the French and Bolivian Legations, which were guarded by strong picquets of troops.

The revolution in Bolivia continues triumphant. General Sauchez started for Potosi with 250 men and 3 field-pieces. A counter-revolution was attempted at Cochabamba, but General Melgarejo took the ringleaders, Gomez and Araya, who were officers of Chasseurs, and shot them on the spot: others were banished. Melgarejo holds supreme power at La Paz, and will quickly reduce the other departments. Generals Agreda and Villegas were seized when escaping, to proclaim the fallen President Acha. The departments of Potosi and Taraja have declared President Melgarejo a traitor.

The President of Chile left Valparaiso for the capital on the 7th inst. The Spanish war steamer Vencedora called at Caldera and arrived at Valparaiso on the 8th. The ravages of the small-pox diminish. There was no ball given on the occasion of the President's departure.

MONTEVIDEO.

Standard Office, Montevideo.
Friday, March 31, 1865.

The late revolution, which at last after a term of two years has successfully been concluded, has as a matter of course to a great extent upset and partially destroyed the administration of justice in most parts of the camp districts. It is a matter of the most primary importance, that this state of affairs should at once be remedied. The professed object of the Revolution was to upset tyranny and establish a new Government which would impartially render justice to all parties. The first step, peace having been made, ought to be the establishment of proper officials throughout the country; on it will certainly depend the ultimate success or failure of the present Government. General Flores and his ministers up to this time have shown themselves to be fully capable of holding the very important positions they hold, and I am certain they will not neglect this most important of all steps, which at the same time that it effectually consolidates their Government, will also create a feeling of general security throughout the land, thereby contrasting advantageously to themselves the new system with the old one. Several complaints have already been made as regards the inefficiency of the camp 'Juzgados,' and before all others ought they be attended to. It is but quite natural that just now there should be a number of marauding ruffians knocking about the country, in fact we could not expect that it would have been otherwise. It is not to be fancied that men who have been for the last two years engaged in the exciting pursuits of war, will in a moment forget their old privileges and settle down to a pastoral life; nor yet that all of the immense number of men who so recently have been disbanded, will for the present moment find an occupation which will suit them; therefore there will be a number of idle unoccupied characters prowling about, and as we have no very great or high idea of their honesty, it ought not much to surprise us should we hear now and then of outrages committed by them. Yet this latter part has nothing to do with the Government—it is their duty to organise a force throughout the country sufficient in strength to protect the inhabitants and their properties. This has been done to a certain extent, yet it requires some few modifications, for instance the men chosen for this purpose ought to be men of probity, men who have distinguished themselves by their good conduct on all occasions. It would be worse than folly to suppose that the men destined for this purpose could be indiscriminately chosen from any of the bodies of troops which composed the army; if such were the case it would be something in the style of putting a wolf in charge of a troop of lambs. As yet I have heard of no outrages having been recently committed, but how many crimes, how many robberies, how many murders occur in the Banda Oriental that we never hear a word about, especially within those late years of disturbances and revolutions? We can make allowances for the Government in some cases, but this is a matter which will not abide consideration, nor the waste of time over it: it demands instant attention. Some partidos are actually without "Jueces de Paz." Such being the case, there necessarily will be no administration of justice, there being no administration of justice there is no law: no law no Government. From this reasoning it will be seen that not only is the subject one worthy of immediate attention but that it concerns the vital existence of the State.

It will afford you great satisfaction to hear that the project for laying down an electric cable between Montevideo and Buenos Ayres, a subject which has been so long in contemplation, is actually about to be executed. The following is the existing agreement between the Government and Mr. George Hall, representant of Messrs. Proudfoot, Matthew, Gray & Co.

1st. The Government will concede to the 'concessionaires' the exclusive privilege of establishing and exploiting the Electric Telegraph, for a term which will not exceed fifteen years, counting from the day upon which the line commences to work.

2nd. The materials necessary for the construction or repairs of the line will pass through the Custom-house duty free.

3rd. The 'empresario' exploiters will be authorised to place posts and wires on the public roads and other places where it may be necessary, it being incumbent upon them to previously arrange such matters with the proprietors of the lands where it may be necessary to plant the said posts.

4th. The Government will assist the exploiters as far as may be within its reach, dictating the necessary steps, and promulgating laws to that effect.

5th. The Government will have the right to send all its official messages for half the usual charge.

6th. If through any disagreement which should occur between both Governments, private correspondence should be prohibited, the Government shall have the right of inspecting all correspondence, without, however, causing any interruption to the working of the telegraph.

7th. The exploiters, under the penalty of losing their contract, shall eighteen months after said contract be signed have the line in working order.'

You may perceive from the above that Montevideo is not behind the age: every succeeding day some new scheme of improvement is proposed, or is being carried out. One great reformation is yet required, that of the Custom-house. In our city, abuses in the Custom-house are not so prevalent as in the sister city. Yet it must be owned there is wide room for improvement.

The great curse of South American customs is the slowness, or more properly speaking the laziness, of the officials. However, in our case a new Government has been installed, and we hope a new method of transacting Custom-house business will be one of its accompaniments. Up to the 24th of this month the Customs have produced 174,760 pesos Nacionales, proof of the immense amount of business that has been done this month. The National Guard, in the department of Salto, has been disbanded.

Governor Flores has recognised Sr. Enrique Calvacante de Albuquerque as Charge d'Affairs. It will be remembered this Brazilian diplomatist arrived the other day from Rio de Janeyro, per Saintonge. He is said to be a man of great talent, and is a 'Liberal.'

Of course, you are all aware of the departure of Sr. Paranhos and friends. He was universally esteemed and beloved by all who knew him, and takes the good wishes of all with him to his home. Whatever might have been the disappointment, justified as it was at his Imperial master's treatment, it certainly must have been greatly counterbalanced by the esteem and affection shown him while here by all parties. He was accompanied on board the Mersey by the Minister of Foreign Affairs and Exchequer, as also by Admiral Chaigneau, General Osorio, his staff, and several other persons. Three bands of music performed on the Custom house wharf during the embarkation of his Excellency.

It is said that the Spanish iron-clad Numancia, leaves on Monday or Friday for the western coast. She has been an object of the greatest curiosity during her stay here.

Sr. Villalba's pamphlet on banks has been published to-day. It is an exceedingly interesting work, and it would not be doing the author an injustice to say he was a man of some talent.

A rather serious brawl occurred the other night between some soldiers [Brazilians], and Orientals. One of the combatants was severely wounded: better luck next time.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

We publish in another column the particulars respecting the destruction of an Argentine barque by one of the Confederate cruisers. It may interest the owners here.

An American gentleman, who has just returned from Chivilcoy, gives us the most glowing description of that flourishing town. He tells us that it is the richest and best laid out town in the camp: the plaza is four squares in extent. Six years ago the place had only thirteen houses of business, and now the town boasts of 175 shops. In consequence of the proposed extension of the Western Railway, land has gone up to most fabulous prices. A Basque, who a few months ago purchased a square of land at $1,500 m/c, sold it recently for $90,000 m/c. Our informant states that the chacras extend ten leagues beyond the town, and every day new land is being ploughed up. There is not a spot in the province which is going ahead so fast as Chivilcoy, and when the railway will be opened all the way, it will be only second to the city of Buenos Ayres.

Respecting the questions at present pending between the Northern Railway and the Government, we are authorized to state that there is every probability that they will be promptly concluded. The valuation and report sent into the Government by the inspectors have been objected to by the Fiscal, and a third party, Sr. Haedo, called in. We have every reason to suppose that now all the difficulties will be overcome, and that the Government, as soon as the Fiscal returns the document, will comply with the terms of the contract in giving the guarantee of 7 per cent. on the £150,000 sterling. We feel bound to say, on due inquiry into the matter, that the Provincial Government has in this business demonstrated the greatest despatch and willingness towards the stockholders.

The 'Eco del Comercio' has at last made its appearance. We salute our new colleague cordially. The paper is very well got up, and the leaders well written. Its repertory of commercial news is ahead of all the other native papers. We congratulate Mr. Rom on his seventh editorial step.

The Oliden beef is the absorbing topic of the day. Mr. Oliden is in a fair way of making a colossal fortune: on dit, the Government thinks of purchasing the Oliden secret. The price asked, we understand, is a a trifle of sixteen thousand ounces.

At a financial meeting in London, at which all River Plate celebrities attended, a question arose as to the amount of trade of that place. It was ultimately decided by reference to our 'Hand-book' being the only book in England that could be found with statistics of the trade. We have received by this mail a respectable order from Hamburg for our new 'Hand-book,' which we are working hard at: it will be much larger and more comprehensive than the last one. Any useful information which our readers can afford us, will be most thankfully received.

A very important scheme, for regulating the charges of Mole peons, and protecting immigrants on their arrival from being victimized, was laid before the National Government. It has been peremptorily rejected by the President, who, we suppose, regarded such strong regulations respecting the peons as improper.

A German gentleman has called on us to say, that on board the French mail steamer Saintonge, the purser makes a shave of 2½ per cent. on French gold. We are requested to call attention to this matter, as the 20 franc piece on board the Saintonge is taken at 19½ francs. This is really very stiff.

The Pavon arrived yesterday with news from the interior. Things keep very quiet up in the provinces. Dr. Rawson, the Prime Minister, has arrived in Cordova, and was well received. It is generally believed, however, that the whole Posse murder affair will end in nothing save long Government decrees.

Our evening colleague the 'Pueblo' has a most wholesale attack on the National Government respecting the money spent in defending the frontier. The charges are drawn up with the greatest care, and have been evidently written by some one who has the entre into the Government-house.

The Province of Santa Fé which was the only province in the Republic which declined the subsidy from the National Government, has solicited it now from the President, which was at once accorded.

The elections in Chascomus have terminated, resulting in favor of Sr. Gorostiaga as Senatoa, and Sr. Basilvilbasso and Moreno as deputies.

Our colleague the 'Cosmopolita,' which once attacked us so severely for speaking of Indians and murders, has completely changed round, and now gives the most gloomy description of the state of affairs in Santa Fé, representing the camps of that province over-run with a set of murderers and thieves, and charges the authorities with impotency. We are slow to believe that things have suddenly become so monstrously bad as is represented, since last month our colleague said Santa Fé was as safe as Ireland.

The number of persons found drowned in and about the mole is becoming most alarming; almost every second day the news is that another man is found drowned. There ought to be some enquiry made into this constant drowning business. Only the day before yesterday a corpse was washed up at the mole-head. We want a coroner badly in Buenos Ayres.

Chascomus is all astir owing to some new National Guard officer which the Government has sent down. The guards who we suppose are very plucky fellows, all say that they will not obey this new officer, and that the Government must restore to the town the old commander. The shooting party have not yet returned to town. We are promised a full report of the excursion.

The whole Province of Santiago seems to be going mad about indigo. We notice the Government offers forty squares of land free, gratis, to all who think proper to start in the indigo business. The cotton-planting, which is much simpler and less expensive, received no assistance whatever from Government. This indigo speculation will prove a grand failure; the capital necessary for its manufacture is enormous.

Walking off with the horses has again become the favorite diversion of negroes and others, and it is unsafe to leave a horse standing at any door in town, except the Policia or 'Standard' office.

General E. Mitre is expected in San Juan, and the townspeople are making great preparations to receive him with all honors. Balls, 'fetes,' &c., will be the order of the day when the gallant General arrives.

In the Plaza Constitucion there are a number of North American waggons. They look very queer alongside the old bullock carts, and yet strange to say, although for sale, no purchaser can be found, as people say the bullock carts are better adapted for this country.

The Previsora Argentina, a native insurance company, is, we are glad to say, doing an immense business, and the investment of its surplus capital in house property is regarded more secure than those in public bonds.

Rio Grande is represented as in an alarming state of uproar, owing to the constant enlistments and preparations going on for the Paraguayan war, and to the rumor that President Lopez is about to march down. Fortifications, &c., are the order of the day.

Some Paraguayan has presented himself to Canavaro, offering to get up a body of 500 men, and to lead the Brazilians into Paraguay. The Brazilian officer, distrusting the Paraguayan offer, declined the tempting proposal.

General Netto has captured six of Munoz's men on the Brazilian frontier. They were at once shot. Fidelis also caught a few and did the same.

It is a significant fact, that the very men charged with the murder of Dr. Posse, the Pizarros, are the persons sent from Cordova to meet Dr. Rawson and escort him to the city. The Legislature has voted 100 patacons to defray their expenses on the journey. We wonder how Dr. Rawson will feel in such company, and whether Dr. Posse's fate alarms him.

We received some more communications yesterday about the case of Burr versus Green, and another complaint against the bank almost identical to that of Mr. Burr's, only a little heavier, a gentleman who had brought out £1,000, and had to pay to the bank £30. However, at the request of an old subscriber, and a tried friend of the 'Standard,' we beg to advise our numerous correspondents that the case of Burr versus Green is closed.

Mr. Temperley has received advices from Antwerp of the sale of his wool there at the very high price of $4 20 patacons per ar. We have seen the letter, and it speaks in the most flattering terms of Mr. Temperley's wool.

The Satellite and Dotorell arrived yesterday in port. We salute Captains Crofton, and Johnson, and officers. We understand the Satellite shortly leaves for England.

THE RIVER PLATE BANK IN MONTEVIDEO.

Mr. Thomas Villalba has at last sent in his report on the state of the banks in Montevideo: the document is lengthy and we purpose publishing it in three parts:

1st—The report on the River Plate Bank.

2nd—On the Mauá Bank.

3d—On the Commercial Bank.

After premising that he me with very politeness and facility on the part of the managers of the various banks, in his examination of their books and arrangements, he proceeds to remark of the River Plate Bank as follows:

"Although the London, Buenos Ayres and River Plate Bank was not authorized last year to emit paper-currency and is therefore in certain manner exempt from the fiscal action of Government, the Manager dit not hesitate to give me his ideas on the state of the money-market, and the fullest explanation about the capital of the Bank (one hundred thousand £ sterling) already introduced as well as the credit it enjoys and the operations it successfully practises. It is desirable that this important institution should be at once allowed the right of emission, placing it in a situation to augment its capital and render still greater service to the commercial interests.

"During the recent crisis things would have been very different if the London and River Plate Bank had then enjoyed the right of emission, and brought its capital into play, as no other bank probably possessed such facilities for importing gold from abroad, its Directory being resident in London.

"For these considerations I have now the honor to submit to Your Excellence the following resolations:

The London, Buenos Ayres and River Plate Bank domicided in this city with a capital of its own amounting to £100,000 sterling and which can be augmented at pleasure, is authorized to emit Bank-notes payable to bearer besides its operations of deposit and discount, in accordance with the following rules:

1st. The minimum value of notes so admitted by the Bank shall be one doubloon.

2nd. During the scarcity of small change and until a contrary disposition by the Legislature, the Bank may issue fractional notes as low as 10 cents.

3rd. The emission of small notes shall be as 20 per cent of the bank capital.

4th. The emission of notes or vouchers shall at no time exceed triple the effective capital of the Bank.

5th. The Bank-rates shall be payable in gold and at sight whenever presented in sums not less than a doubloon or small change up to ten dollars; and the failure of such payment on any occasion will cause the suspension and liquidation of the transactions of the Bank, which in such case can only resume operations by a new authorization

6th. In the case foreseen, of either bankruptcy or voluntary liquidation, the notes which the Bank may have in circulation shall enjoy absolute preference.

7th. The notes emitted by the Bank shall exclusively represent whole doubloons.

8th. The Bank shall publish monthly an abridged balance-sheet, and be subject to the supervision of a Government Commissary who will have power to examine the registers of emission and verify the conformity of the Bank's operations with the bases laid down.

9th. The Bank will not commence emission until the Mauá and Commercial Banks renew their conversion of notes (specie-payments), or be shut up in default.

10. The Commercial Bank is authorized to reform its statutes in exact accordance with the above bases.

"Your Excellency, in granting the right of emission and other legitimate operation to the London B. Ayres and River Plate Bank, and in authorizing the Commercial Bank to reform its statutes as so long prayed for, will not only perform an act of justice, but respond to one of the exigencies of the time, by fomenting the introduction of new capital and the development of that which we already posses.

"In this and all other points Your Excellency will resolve as is most expedient.

THE STEAMER "INICIADOR."

Messrs. Mulhall, Editors of the "Standard,"

Gentlemen,

Will you please have the kindness to accept the following lines for insertion in the columns of your valuable paper as answer to the article in yesterday's paper, signed "Tornillo Roto" or broken screw. As such a screw needs repair, and therefore allow me to fix him, as the Yankee says, for if, as he seems to think, steam engines cannot be manufactured in this country as well as in Europe or North America, he must certainly not mean to say, that "a broken screw" cannot be mended.—If "Tornillo Roto" is so much of a lover of truth, I am placed in position to give him the whole truth as regards the steamer "Iniciador" built in this city by Messrs. Sherman & Co.

Said steamer, as yet unfortunate, as "Tornillo Roto" calls her, has been designed and built by Mr. Sherman; the dimensions of the boat were sent to England and a pair of good engines suitable to her construction ordered.

We all know, that foreigners in this country are generally under the impression, that nothing good can be made here and that all that comes from Europe must unmistakably be good. But what a mistake, how many old residents have come to a different conclusion?

I am not personally interested in said steamer "Iniciador" but so connected as to be intimately acquainted with the facts of the unfortunate break-down of a part of her machinery on her first trip. Although the part broken was a trifle and by this time mended, altered and improved, it proves that its construction was vicious, and caused considerable expense and annoyance to Messrs. Sherman & Co. and besides discouragement to import again engines from England after having waited for them many months.

What does "Tornillo Roto" say to this? engines made by the first builders in England, and improved in this country by persons wishing to establish a reputation and deceive the public? and indeed if "Tornillo Roto" thinks that if a person wishes to establish his credit in this country and deceive the public in such a manner, he is sadly mistaken, for the engines referred to, instead of giving Messrs. Sherman, & Co. credit, have had a tendency to injure their already made reputation and this truth, it appears to me, is which most would have pleased the lover of truth "Tornillo Roto."

I have never heard any of the interested parties say, that the mentioned engines were made here, and if the 'Nacion Argentina' or any other local paper have made such a mistake, it is natural enough that they believed it, for there are now at this present moment 6 engines of different sizes on the way in Sherman & Co.'s shop, and none under but several above 12 inch bore cylinders. The drawings, patterns, forging, turning and fitting of said six engines have been made inside of the gates of the establishment in Calle Cerrito in Buenos Ayres. The castings were made in various foundries likewise of this city, and within a month all castings will be made in the same yard. The boat and boiler building shop is in the Boca in charge of the able Mr. Moore. All this appears to me to be a pretty good start to establish a reputation in this country.

I suppose this will do for "Tornillo Roto"; for all this is the plain truth. The comparison drawn by him between the Iniciador and the Era and Estrella del Norte, is so much out of its place, that it would be ridiculous to spend time and ink to say more about it than this, it only shows that he must be envious and jealous of Sherman & Co.'s reputation or deeply interested in the two latter steamers.

Buenos Ayres, March 30th 1865.

THE ISTHMUS OF SUEZ CANAL.

To the President and members of the chamber of commerce of—

Paris, January 31.

Gentlemen: A first communication is open between the Mediterranean and the Red Sea.

Since the 1st of January a daily boat service has been established from Port Said to Suez, and between Ismalla and Zagazig. At the same it serves all the intermediary stations of the isthmus.

I have recently made several journeys along the line of works, during each of which I have established the facility of transit, and have also obtained its recognition by the numerous distinguished visitors who have done me the honour to accompany me.

In a large barque, carrying from twenty-five to thirty persons, and towed by a steamer, for which the company is indebted to the liberality of his Imperial Highness Prince Napoleon, we accomplished the 150 kilometres separating the two seas in 24 hours.

These facts appeared to me of a character likely to attract the attention of the different Chambers of Commerce which, in so many ways, are interested in the completion of the Suez Canal.

The time has arrived when commerce must be prepared for the opening of this maritime canal to vessels of large burden, and the Suez Company calls upon it henceforth to study with it the means of making use of a boat service which can already transport goods and passengers between the two seas, along a continuous line of water at least 1.20 metre in depth, and 15 metres in breadth.

With this object, gentlemen, the administration of the company has the honour to propose that you make choice of a representative to proceed to Egypt, in order that he may report to you upon the actual state of the works, upon the prospects presented of their approaching conclusion, and more especially upon the resources at present furnished to commerce by the establishment of a daily service for the transport of persons and merchandise.

In view of these operations the company has ordered six small steam tugs to be delivered upon the spot in four months.

I trust these circumstances will arouse the attention of the Chamber of Commerce of—; and if it will afford us the assistance asked for it would be convenient that the delegate it may choose should be at Alexandria upon the 6th of April next. I, myself, shall be in Egypt to receive the delegates, and shall endeavour to afford them every facility for inspecting the works on the isthmus, and will place at their disposal all information, which they may judge necessary for the accomplishment of their mission.—

Receive, &c. (Signed)

FERDINAND de LESSEPS.

President of the Universal Company of the Suez Canal.

CONFEDERATE CRUISERS.

The Olustee, alias Tallahassee, is reported captured, Jan. 19, while attempting to run into New-Inlet.

The United States steamer Iroquois arrived in Table Bay on the 29th January with a portion of the crews of the schooner Lizzie M. Stacy, and the barque Edward, both of which vessels were burnt at sea by the Confederate cruiser Shenandoah, the men on board being afterwards landed at Tristan d'Acunha, from whence they were taken by the Irroquois. The barque Adelaide, with the Argentine flag at her peak, was boarded. It appears that the captain of the Shenandoah demanded her bill of sale and transfer to the Argentine Government, which the captain could not produce. She was then ordered to be destroyed. After they had broken up the cabin and poured tar and turpentine over the floor, the captain of the Adelaide spoke to the captain of the Shenandoah, upon which he immediately ordered them to repair what damage they had done and release the vessel. It is said that she belonged to a friend of the Confederates.

The Confederate ironclad ship, about which so many mysterious paragraphs have gone the round of the English and foreign journals, is the Stonewall, commanded by Captain Page. She is one of the two formidable vessels built by M. Armand, of Bordeaux, and constituted with her consort the subject of a correspondence between the French Government and the late Mr. Drayton. The Stonewall is a vessel of great power, heavily armed, and fully manned. Her crew is principally composed of the men who served under Captain Wardell in the Floridy. She started ostensible for Charleston, but it appears that stress of weather had driven her for shelter into the harbour of Corunna. The Federal agent at that port has called on the Spanish Government to lay an embargo on the ship, but the corregidor of Corunna limits interference to ordering it out to sea as soon it has coaled and re-fitted whatever is wanting to make a seaworthy.

BRITISH SUBJECTS IN MONTEVIDEO.

Mr. Maguire asked the Under Secretary for Foreign Affairs whether any and what instructions had been sent to the minister at Montevideo for the protection of British subjects and property during the aggression of Brazil against the republic of Uruguay, and whether any information had been received as to state of the blockade of any of the Montevidean ports since the repulse of the Brazilian squadron before Paysandú, as reported in the public journals?

Mr. Layard said that as soon as information was received of the state of things on the River Plate, instructions would be sent to the admiral commanding our squadron to afford every protection to her Majesty's subjects. With regard to the second question, no information had been received.

This was a very busy day on 'Change, and a well known English broker opened the day's business by selling very heavily for cash; he sold and kept selling until he ran patacons down to a price which left it impossible for them to return to the opening price. The sales for cash were heavy, and appear more of a speculative character than anything else. As a matter of course there are various rumours as to the month's gains and losses, and one well known broker is said to have netted over a million paper dollars. Paper money is felt to be much easier, but a very severe demand for gold was experienced notwithstanding the decline in prices.

There were no sales of National Bonds, although some few were offered, but no buyers could be found.

Beyond the river steamers there were no arrivals yesterday save a vessel from Paraguay with tobacco, yerba, and hides.

SAVINGS BANK.

BANK MAUA AND CO.

No. 103 Calle de Cangallo,

BUENOS AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt and appreciated in the two great emporiums of the River Plate, Montevideo and Buenos Ayres, that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the bank in which they place the most confidence.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working classes in that city a safe and profitable depositary for their savings.

The sums deposited in that most important institution are daily increasing, and already reach a very large amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of clerks, artisans, working men, and servants of all classes and conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness, or old age, instead of spending them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries, and other frivolities.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. of this city, following the noble example of their firm in Montevideo, now offer the same facilities in this city, and will open a Savings Bank at No. 103 Calle Cangallo, from Nine a m till Three p.m on Week Days, and on Sundays and Holidays from Ten a.m. to Twelve m., for the reception of the savings of the classes already mentioned.

The Bank will deliver to each depositor a pass book, in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn.

The depositor is permitted at any time to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited; in the former case the interest will be calculated up to date.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. is sufficiently known to the Public by the benefit derived from the course of its operations, which are regulated on the strictest and soundest principles, and always directed to promote the general welfare

The Bank of Mauá and Co. are also persuaded that this new branch of their business will render immense service to the working classes of Buenos Ayres and its neighbourhood.

Buenos Ayres, September 19, 1863.

P p. Mauá and Co.

CONDITIONS.

First—The Bank receives at interest any sum from Twenty-five Dollars currency Silver Dollar upwards.

Second—The interest allowed is six per cent. (6 p %) per annum, which is liquidated ever six months.

Third—The depositors can at any time retire the whole or part of the money deposited.

Fourth—Once the money deposited exceeds twenty-five thousand dollars currency, or one thousand dollars silver, the depositor, if he wishes can open an account current, according to the rules established by the Bank.

Fifth—In case the depositor loses his pass book, it can be replaced by another on paying twelve dollars currency, and advertising the loss in the public newspapers.

Condition on the 31st Jan. 1865.

Capital subscribed, 656,575 hard dollars

Number of Policies, 495.

Bonds purchased, 54,000 hard dollars.

The Bienhechora offers three various modes of Insurance to its subscribers, 1st, with the loss of capital by the death of the Insured party; 2nd, without loss of capital in said event; 3rd, with mere compound interest.

In the first form the Insured party has a right to:

1. To compound interest on the bonds purchased by the capitals received by the Company.
2. To a propertionate share of the capitals and interest of those who die in their respective sections.
3. To a proportionate share of the Capitals and Interests of forfeited subscriptions.
4. To a proportion of gains resulting from increased value of the National Bonds acquired by the inversion of funds.

In the second form the Insured claims:

1. Compound Interest on the National Bonds purchased by the Association,
2. A proportionate share of the Interest due on the Capitals of those who die in the respective sections, which capitals are returned to the subscribers
3. A proportion of the interest due on forfeited shares.
4. A proportionate share of the profits arising from the increased value of the National Bonds, acquired by inversion of funds.

Finally, in the third form, gives a right to the corresponding interest produced by the Bonds purchased with their subscriptions, and the successive reinvestment of such interest, effected quarterly, when the coupons are paid up by the public treasury.

So marvellous are the benefits arising from the employment of Capitals in Public Funds, assisted by the combinations effected by "La Bienhechora," based upon the Mortality Tables of Deparcieux, and the interest produced by the 6 per cent. Consolidated Bonds, that taking for a model, the result given by other companies established precisely in the same form and basis, but with an accumulative interest much inferior to that gained by the "Bienhechora," that it is enabled to present as positive the following tables showing the gradual progression of capitals for a subscription of:

100 Silver Dollars annually, with loss of Capital through the death of the Insured.

A Service to the British flag.

To the Captain of H.M.S. Satellite,

Colonia, March 15th, 1865.

Sir,

Yesterday after returning from your ship I offered the reward to my crew which you were pleased to give in reward of services rendered by the pilot-boat Veloz to H.M.S. Satellite while she lay on the rocks.

I beg to return said reward (say one ounce) as my crew refuses to accept it and it is not just for me to claim it.

With due respect I beg to remain.

Your obt humble servant,
